Week of September 18, 2017

About halfway up the first hill of the amazing Dirty Bird Mud run course, I was reminded of the Latin verb “ambulare,” which means to walk. As I ambled through the course, I was reminded of my annual goal to get in shape before the next year’s Dirty Bird Mud run, so that it might actually be a run...not a walk. I need these occasional reminders for my spiritual walk as well. Isaiah 40 came to mind this week. I pray it might be an encouragement to you as it was to me.

Isaiah 40:28-31 “Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator(Elohim) of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. <sup>29</sup> He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength. <sup>30</sup> Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted; <sup>31</sup> but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.
